THE PROPHECY OF THE CLASS OF "55"

Year: 1975
Time: Mid-afternoon
Objective: A 10-day cruise aboard the U.S.S. Spartana

Entering the offices of the SHORT SUBLETT Agency, (NORMA and PHYLLIS respectively) we are attracted by the long line of distinguished-looking persons waiting to purchase tickets. At the end of said line, JIM and JUNE (WILLIAMS) COCHRAN, with all the little Cochrans, MYRNA DENNISON, her husband and their four sons, and WILMA and WILDA STEVENS, each with her own set of twins, turn to greet us.

Snappy service furnished by the ticket-selling HOOVERS, KATHERINE and JOE, enable us to soon pass through the gates leading toward the ship, where we note, much to our surprise, that the customs agents inspecting passengers' luggage are our own JOE WEICHT and DAVE STRINGER. Waiting to have their baggage cleared are CHARLOTTE LANGE, GLADYS JENNINGS, BETTY HOOD, DEANNA MacLARREN, ARLENE ROSIER, BEVERLY SMITH, and SHIRLEY STEVENSON just returning from a guided tour of Upper Elleteenia, conducted by his honor, the Mayor of New York City, ROBERT JOHNSON.

Boarding the liner immediately in front of us is that handsome foreign diplomat, STANLEY GILBERT, accompanied by his confidential secretaries DORCAS ROSSITER, MIRIAM DETTLING, and MARLENE COTTRELL and his goodwill ambassadors IRENE KANIS, RUTH GLASS, SUZANNE WEYRICK, BARBARA BROWN, and JOANNE NICKLAS. Waiting at the top of the gangplank to interview them are those award-winning reporters, NANCY BRADLEY and FRANCES HESKETT, with ace photographer, BOB TREEN.

Captain RAY HOHLBAUGH welcomes us aboard while pursers GLENN SIBERT and HARRY BUTLER check in our valuables. Stewards BOB WILLINGHAM, FRED FORD, and KENNY SAYRE are so busy assisting passengers to their staterooms that they don't even see us.

Wandering toward the lounge, we see ROY BELL, designer of The Cozy Curvy-Contour Chair, displaying his product to ARNOLD BIAS and LEE RABER. JOANN REED, SHIRLEY JOSEPH, and MARTHA KOVACS, winners of the $1,000,000 cruise sponsored by the Cottonworth Company, seem quite interested in the demonstration. Unexpectedly, our observations are interrupted by the loudspeaker, PAT AYRES, summoning us to the radioroom where the teletypist, MARGARET ENGLE, presents us with a bon-voyage message from JOHN BAILEY who is piloting DON MACE'S new rocketless jet, and promises to meet us when we dock.

Returning to the deck we encounter the U. S. Olympic Team, accompanied by coaches, LARRY BRINKLEY and DICK KING. BUSTER HILMANDOLAR, DICK WALTON, TOM PURSLEY, LONNIE MASSEY, BOB HEFFERNAN, and GENE BOURN are among those going to compete in the contest at Iknisleh, Fieldgoal. Leaving the boys with our best wishes, we turn through the door at our right, where we notice a spacious, pear-shaped swimming pool, in which mermaids DORCAS TODD, ANN SCHROCK, and DEANNA WHITE are paddling about. JOAN RUTHERFORD, LORA ULBRICH, and LINDA PRICE, gathered about to watch them, are doing their best to avoid being splashed.

Again the loud speaker interrupts. An S. O. S. call from a ship to our starboard sends crewmen JERRY JOHNSON, KENNETH CATLETTE, BILL CROGHAN, and HARRY TRESSEL, dashing to the rail. They spy familiar-looking persons approaching in a lifeboat. As the craft draws nearer, we recognize detective WILBUR DEPUE, the notable BARBARA SUMMERTON, who recently discovered a new wonder formula (though as yet no one has discovered what it is wonderful for); that notorious philosopher, CLAUDETTE DYKES, and award-winning author GAYLORD KIRKBRIDE, with his ever present ghost-writers RUSSELL MILLER, KENNY LEIFHEIT, and VERNON LARGE.

Grasping the sides of a second lifeboat is architect ROBERT LEE with his assistants. LARRY THURSTON, BILL DOTSON, and FAURE SCOTT; who are headed for Bali-Lo to build a monastery where missionaries NINA FILLIAN, VERA LEA MIHALY, JOHN CLIFFORD, ROBERTA ROOP, BERNARD JACOBS, and RUBY WOOD are planning to establish a new religious order.

Lending courage to the crisis is BRUCE REICHENBACH, who through it all, continues calmly to strum on his guitar as he sings "Down in the Bottom of the Well."

Spinning into action as the vessel approaches, sailors JOHN ABBOTT, LEONARD BOSO, RONALD WOOD, BILL KELLY, and DON McCOY enthusiastically assist the survivors aboard.

But look! Off in the distance, clinging to a log and riding the waves, still the "Johnny-come-lately," BOYD WILLISON. First-mate RICHARD STIFF escorts the survivors to sick-bay where Doctor DAVE SEWELL and Nurse VIVIAN THORNHILL administer necessary aid.

The excitement over, we return to our fellow passengers. Destined for France where they will attend an inter-spacial teachers convention are history professor, JUNE HORN, primary teachers CAROL GLOYD and PATTY BOLINGER, and English teacher DAWN STEFFEE.

Also aboard ship is that famous hair stylist DELORIS BROWN, who has been invited to demonstrate her new coiffures before the crown heads of Europe. MARY MONDELLO, LILA BORING, NANCI HUMISTON, and ELAINE ANDRICK are serving as her models. DAN and DAL WOLFORD and GLEN CUTLIP are along, too, to provide the male answer to the Italian cut.

Suddenly, half a dozen miniature cars whizz by. Trying to catch them are car-sharks DON HELD, RONALD HENGELI, FRED HERTZOG, BOB McMULLEN, and RONALD VINCENT destined for the tri-annual foreign sports car sales convention at Hot Coils, Jagaway.

At the sound of the dinner bell, we enter the dining room now famous for the cuisine of chef STARLEY SMITH. While eating our meal, the designer who replaced Dior, Madame BARBARA KING, reveals her latest creations as modeled by JOAN JOHNSON, HELEN HARSH, ROBERTA HENGELI, ANNETTE BAKER, CAROL PROUDFOOT, and SANDRA ZEHNER.

Finishing dinner, we make our way to the ballroom where RONNIE SNYDER, master of ceremonies, is introducing those triple-treat mambo madcats KATHRYN THOMPSON, WANDA SPENCER, ANITA AGARAND, MARGIE HARRIS, and DELLA FOCKLER. The Zena-sounding quartet composed of DON EARLENBAUGH, KATHRYN CUTLIP, CARL CLAY, and TREVA EDGELL are followed by the Three-Tango-Tillies, JACKI MELLER, VIRGINIA SHULTZ, and RUTH FIKE. Comedian JOHNNY CRUTCHFIELD, Bop-boogie-blue JUNE BROTHERTON, and CORABELLE JACKSON, and her teethless ground hogs, complete the program.

As we head back for our stateroom, we notice KATHRYN DIRRIG and PAT HACKATHORN propped on deck-chairs busily taking notes on everyone who passes. BARBARA SCHLEMMER, HARRIET IHNOT, and MARGIE GRIFFIN are offering their comments.

Steadying themselves against the rail are FRANCES MILLER, NORMA HOLMES, JUANITA HEADLEY, and BETTY BAKER who appear to be swaying more than the ship. They seem terribly pleased at the approach of DOTTY BERGER and MARY DOBBINS, who have been busy distributing DANIEL BRADLEY'S chocolate-covered, "Trembling Tummy Tidbits."

As the Sandman's bell halts all activity, we retire to Dreamland. Who knows what surprising pleasures tomorrow may hold?

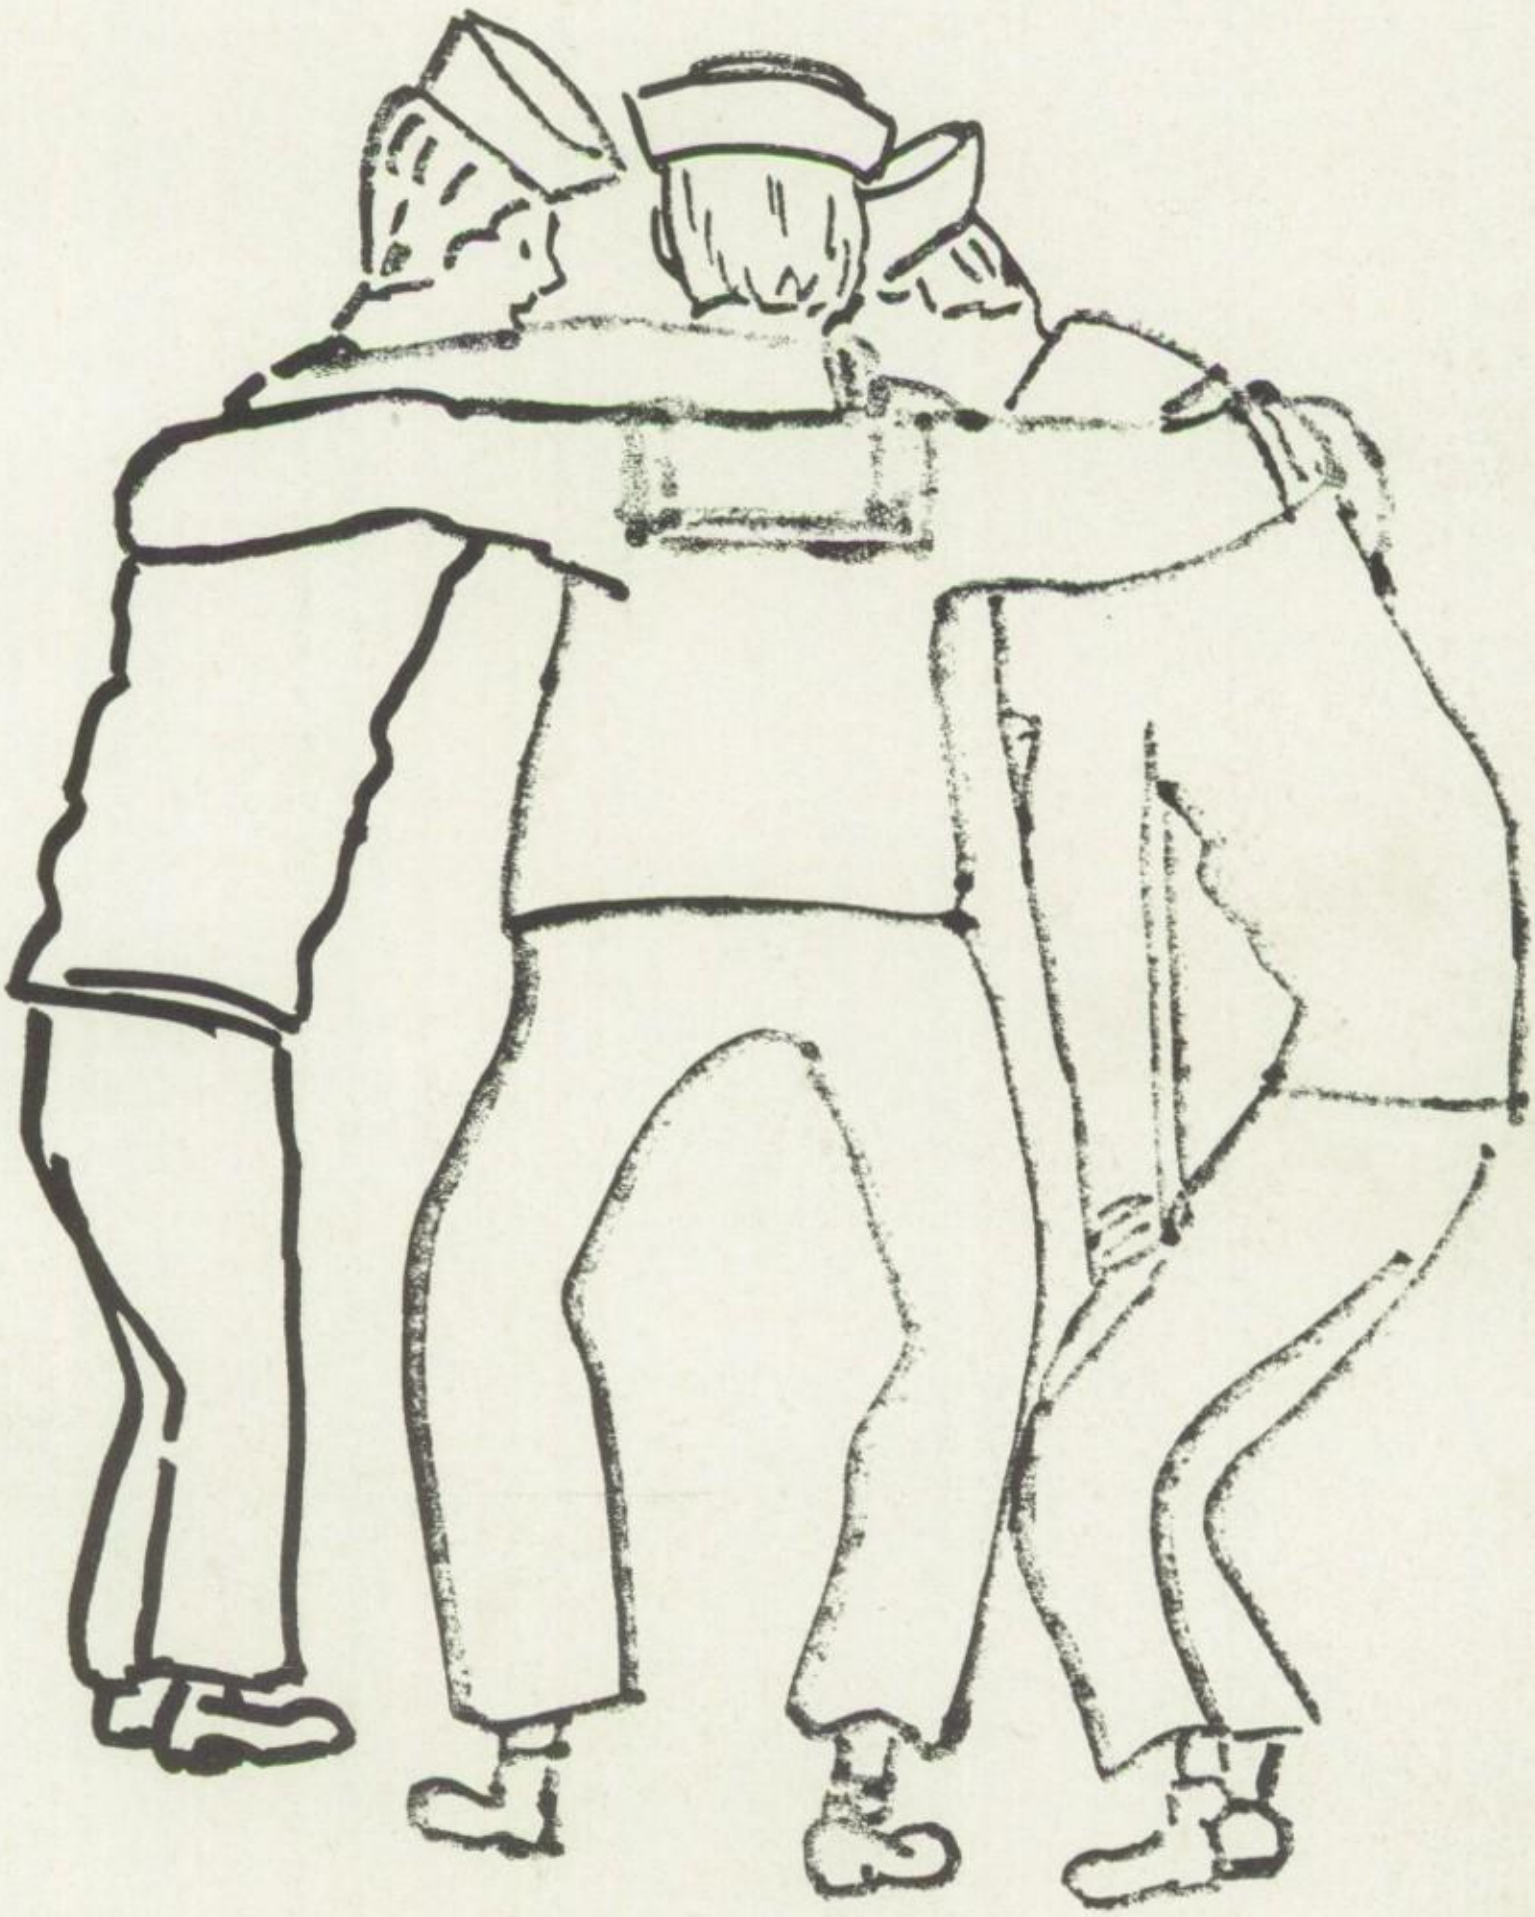
Activities



THE SPRAG

"To Boost and Support"

The school paper, the Sprag, standing for "Springfield Red and Gray," is published each month with the purpose of keeping the student body informed on school events, and provides a detailed record of the year's activities. The 1954-55 staff is listed below.

Editor _____ Barbara Summerton
Associate Editor _____ Kathryn Cutlip

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

In 1938, Springfield High School became a member of the National Honor Society.

Each year, a list is prepared of junior and senior students who have attained the necessary scholastic average of 88%. In addition to this qualification, the students are judged on the basis of character, leadership, and service during their previous years of high school. The list is submitted to the faculty for consideration. No more than 5% of the juniors and 15% of the seniors may be chosen.

DEBATE

The Debate Club consists of students from each of the four classes, organized into four negative and four affirmative teams. They meet teams from other schools to debate and discuss a topic selected by the Speech Association of America. The Debate Club was re-organized at Springfield in 1953 by Mr. Richard Roberts.

F. T. A.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The Future Teachers of America was organized at Springfield High School in 1948 in response to the questions of those people who showed interest in and desired information about the teaching profession. Membership is open to all Sophomore, Junior, and Senior students who have already decided on teaching as a career and those who may still be undecided.

The members of the club visit the grade schools in our district for one day each semester to observe the teacher in the classroom. This gives them an opportunity to ask questions, and to find out whether or not they like to work with children.

HAROMANO

Haromano, honorary girls' club, encourages high scholarship, good fellowship, and good, clean morals; the sum of which leads to ideal womanhood.

A scholastic average of 85% in five subjects or 87 1/2% in four subjects is necessary for admittance.

SENIOR HI-Y

The purpose of Hi-Y, a national organization sponsored by the Y.M.C.A. for junior and senior boys, is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character and Christian fellowship.

JUNIOR HI-Y

The Junior Hi-Y, whose motto is "Contagious Christian Character," is a Y.M.C.A. sponsored club for freshman and sophomore boys, and strives to promote clean speech, clean athletics, clean sportsmanship, and clean living.

KAPPA CHI

Kappa Chi, "Christian Fellowship," welcomes any student who wishes to belong to a club which is interested in clean, wholesome fellowship.

THESPIANS

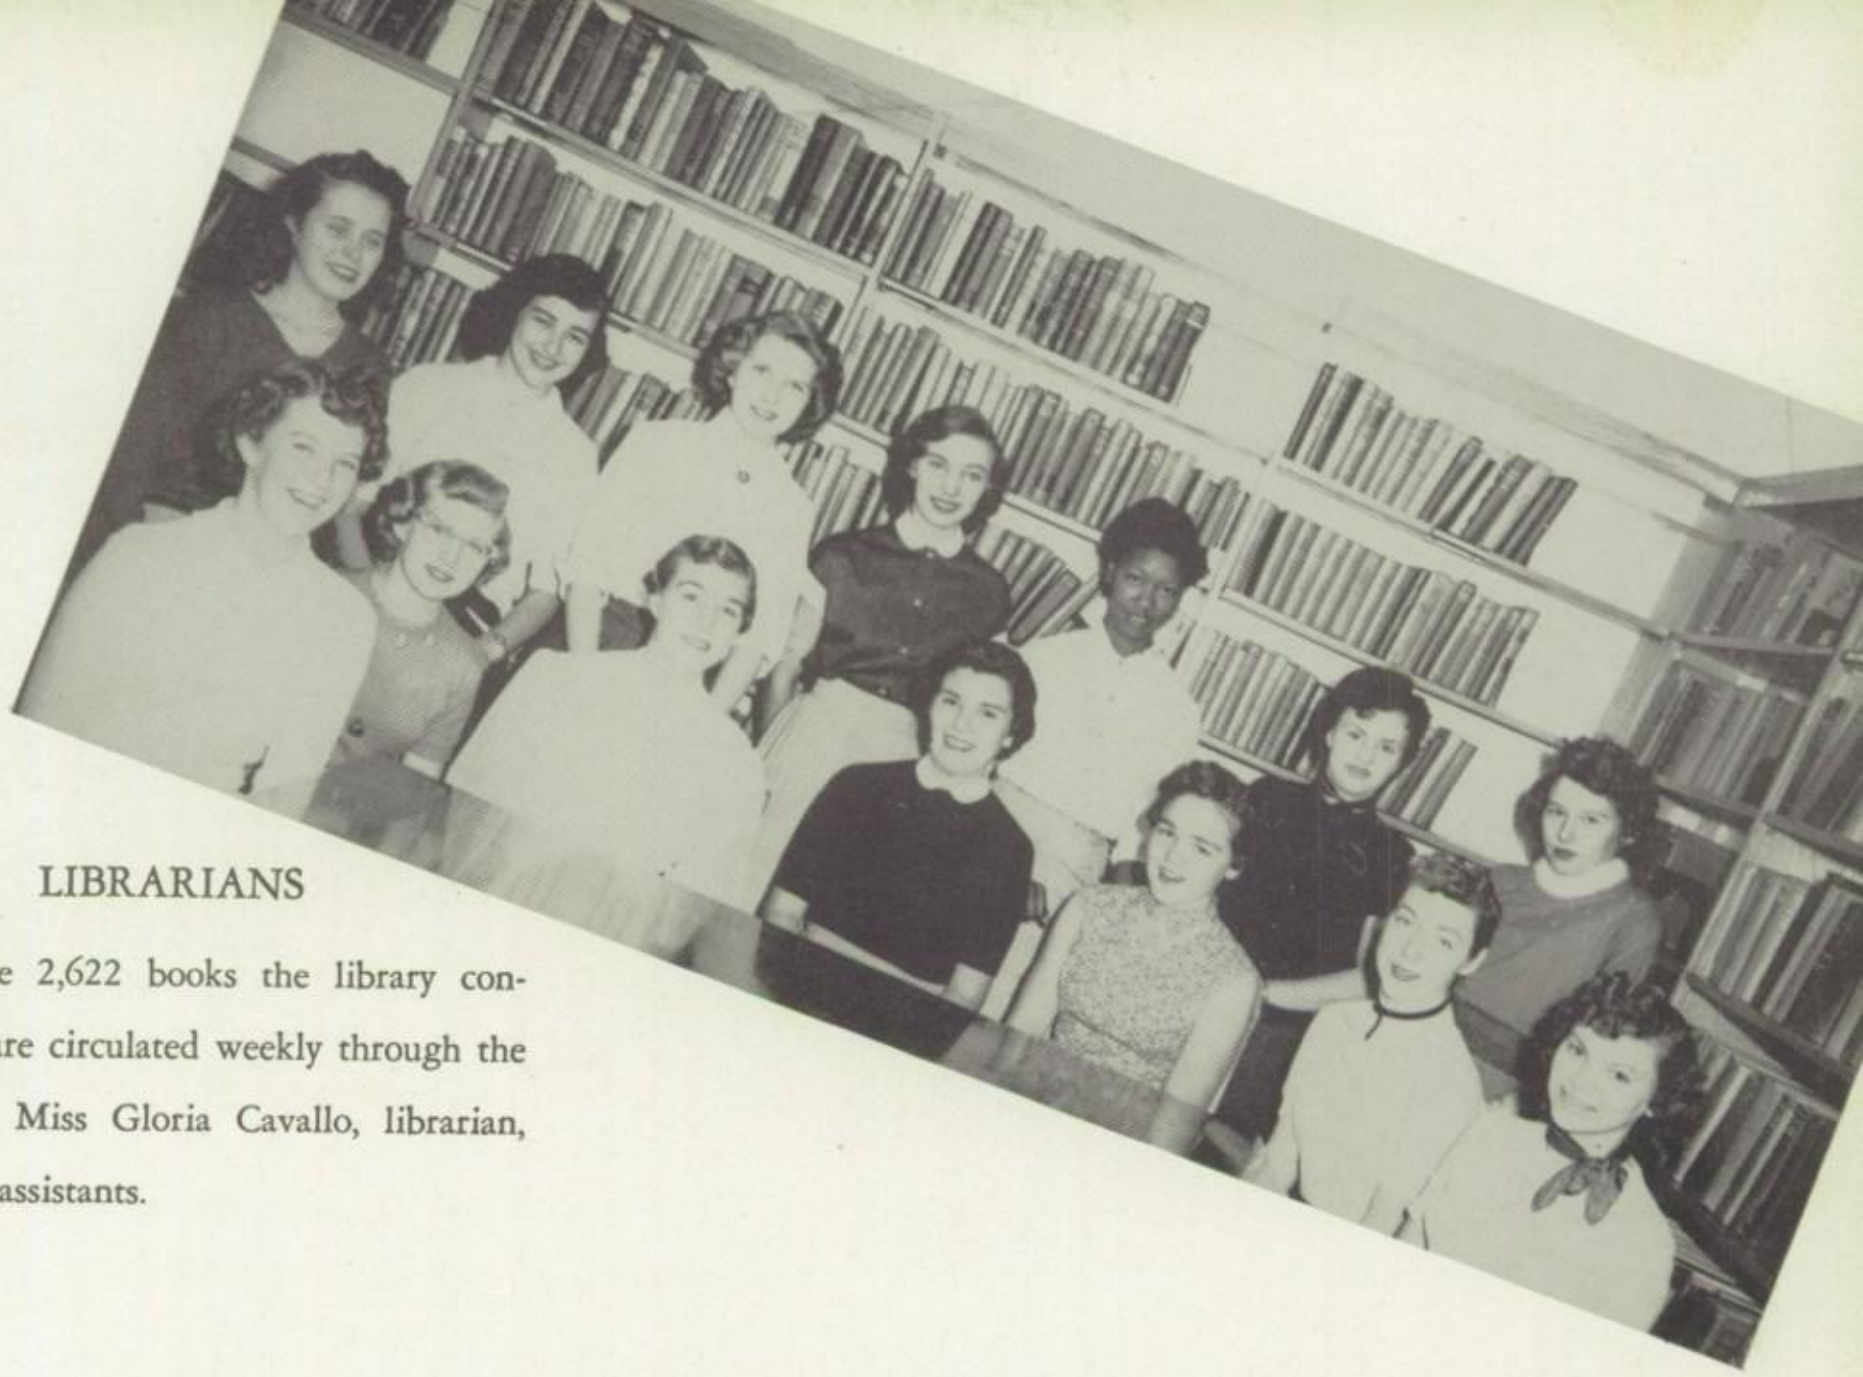
The purpose of Thespians, which is a national honorary society for high school dramatists, is to create a more active and intelligent interest in high school dramatics.

Qualification for membership is based upon a point system.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The primary function of the student council is to develop and promote a feeling of good will, not only between the teachers and students, but among the students themselves. This is accomplished by having representatives from each grade present on the student council.

Qualifications for membership are: (1) A record of reliability, (2) An interest in the council, (3) A scholastic standing of at least 75%.



LIBRARIANS

From the 2,622 books the library contains, 600 are circulated weekly through the services of Miss Gloria Cavallo, librarian, and her 15 assistants.

VARSITY S

The Varsity S Club membership consists of student players and managers, who have earned and received at least one varsity letter.

DRAMATICS CLUB

The purpose of Dramatics Club is to further the interest of students in dramatics by providing members with the experience of both directing and acting.

CAMERA CLUB

The purpose of the Camera Club is to promote an interest in photography as an avocation.

F.H.A.

The object of the Future Homemakers of America is to help each girl better prepare herself for service to her country, community, and her family in the fields of food, clothing, home management, child care, and personal grooming.

G.A.A.

Girls' Athletic Association strives to stimulate interest in athletics and to create a spirit of sportsmanship and good fellowship.

CO-OP

The co-op course is a training program in which business and schools cooperate to provide practical vocational instruction and experience for retail and wholesale jobs. This year-length course is open to all seniors who are at least 16 years of age.

Each student must work at least 15 hours per week, while attending two classes in Sales and Merchandising per day, in addition to other required high school work.

This program is partially subsidized by the Federal Government under the George Deen Law.

May 15, 1955

To the Faculty and Students of Springfield,

Just a little note to express my appreciation for the opportunity of serving you this year as your class photographer.

You've all been very generous with your time, cooperation, and patience in bearing the little inconveniences that seem to go hand-in-hand with yearbook production.

Thanks again for being such a grand group with which to work.

Artistically yours,

Irving
